- 19.3 The parties acknowledge that for the purposes of the Data Protection Legislation, the Customer is the data controller and Friday-Ad is the data processor (where Data Controller and Data Processor have the meanings as defined in the Data Protection Legislation). The Customer shall set out in writing the scope, nature and purpose of processing by Friday-Ad, the duration of the processing and the types of Personal Data and categories of Data Subject, as both such terms are defined in the Data Protection Legislation.

 - b) ensure that it has in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of Personal Data and against accidental loss or destruction of, or damage to, Personal Data, appropriate to the harm that might result from the unauthorised or unlawful processing or accidental loss, destruction or damage and the nature of the data to be protected, having regard to the state of technological development and the cost of implementing any measures;
 - c) ensure that all personnel who have access to and/or process Personal Data are obliged to keep the Personal Data confidential; and

 - f) notify the Customer without undue delay on becoming aware of a Personal Data breach;
 - g) at the written direction of the Customer, delete or return Personal Data and copies thereof to the Customer on termination of the Contract unless required by Applicable Law to store the Personal Data; and
 - h) maintain complete and accurate records and information to demonstrate its compliance with this Condition 19.
- 19.6 The Customer consents to Friday-Ad appointing third parties to process Personal Data under the Contract providing Friday-Ad and the relevant third party entering into a written agreement incorporating terms which are substantially similar to those set out in this Condition 19. As between the Customer and Friday-Ad, Friday-Ad shall remain fully liable for all acts or omissions of any third-party processor appointed by it pursuant to this Condition 19.
- 19.7 Either party may, at any time on not less than 30 days' notice, revise this Condition 19 by replacing it with any applicable controller to processor standard clauses or similar terms forming party of an applicable certification scheme (which shall apply when replaced by attachment to the Contract).
- 20. CHANGE CONTROL
- 20.1 All Changes to the Specification shall take place in accordance with the following Change Control Procedure. Either party may submit at any time a request for Change to the other party.
- 20.2 Where Friday-Ad originates a Change, it shall provide the Customer with a Change Control Note.
- 20.3 Where the Customer originates a proposed Change, it shall provide Friday-Ad with such information (as is within the Customer's reasonable possession or control) which Friday-Ad reasonably considers is relevant to such Change or may assist Friday-Ad in the preparation of a Change Control Note. Friday-Ad will provide the Customer within 14 days of receiving the request for a Change (or such other period as may be agreed between the parties) with a Change Control Note.
- 20.4 The Customer shall, within 14 days of receipt of the Change Control Note (or such later time as may be agreed) indicate acceptance of the change, or set out its reasons for declining.
- 20.5 Each Change Control Note shall include the costs of implementing a Change, relevant deliverables or allocation of resources associated with the Change (if any) and the estimated timescales for implementation of the Change.

- 21.3 As soon as practicable after the Unforeseen Event arises, the party affected by the Unforeseen Event must notify the other party of the extent to which the notifying party is unable to perform its obligations under the Contract.

22. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

Each party shall comply and shall (at its own expense unless expressly agreed otherwise) ensure that in the performance of its duties under the Contract, its employees, agents and representatives will comply with all applicable laws and regulations, provided that neither party shall be liable for any breach to the extent that such breach is directly caused or contributed to by any act or default of the other party or its employees, agents and representatives.

23. NOTICES

24. GENERAL

- 24.1 No one other than a party to the Contract shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.
- 24.2 If any court or competent authority finds that any provision of the Contract (or part of any provision) is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision or part-provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of the Contract shall not be affected.

Each party agrees that it shall have no remedies in respect of any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in the Contract. Each party agrees that it shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation based on any statement in the Contract. Nothing in this Condition shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud.
- 24.4 The Customer shall not assign the Contract or any part of it to any person, firm or company without Friday-Ad's prior written consent.
- 24.5 Failure or delay by a party in enforcing or partially enforcing any provision of the Contract shall not be construed as a waiver of its rights under the Contract. Any waiver by a party shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach.
- 24.6 Dispute Resolution. Any dispute to be resolved pursuant to the Contract shall first be submitted for resolution to the directors (or persons of comparable authority) of each party for resolution. If such directors are unable to resolve the dispute within 10 days (or such longer time as is mutually agreed in writing), then each party shall be free to pursue whatever remedies under the Contract, at law or in equity may be available to it in respect of the subject matter of the dispute.

Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Contract or its subject matter or formation.
